

For processing MS positive birds coming from inside or outside the state of Georgia, we have no restrictions, except for the catching crews. They need to practice biosecurity before catching and loading the next (clean) flock: shower and change into clean clothes, cleaning and disinfection of trucks and equipment.

Reviewed May 2015