

THE CHICK PAPERS

Georgia Poultry Laboratory Network's Monthly Newsletter

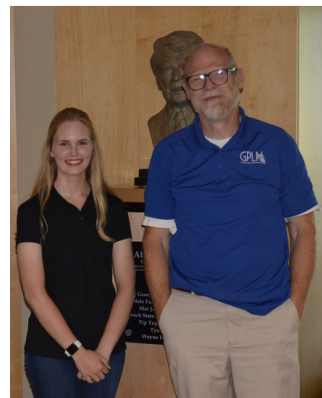

Left: Dr. Zavala enjoyed leading the tour group of Columbian Veterinarians. They had lots of good questions and especially enjoyed getting to see our necropsy suite.

Right: Students from the Veritas Classical Schools of Dawson County squeezed in one last field trip before summer to tour the lab.

Below: Product developers with Salvus visited the lab for a better understanding of the poultry industry and testing parameters.

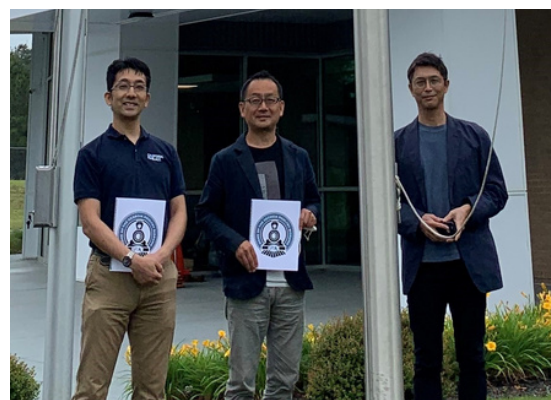

Below: Brittany Skaggs, a DVM candidate at Iowa State University College of Veterinary Medicine came for a brief internship at the end of May to get an overview of the lab functions.

Above: USDA Intern, Nicole Van Der Meer, visited us for a day to get an overview of lab day-to-day activities.

Above: Chandra Harris, Senator Ossoff's State Director, and Leopoldo Vargas, his Regional Outreach Coordinator, visited the lab this May.

Below: Izuki Bando with Calpis America toured the lab with colleagues from Tokyo.
